Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Astle et al. (USP 3,713,985).

Astle teaches a well strip (11) having projections (18,19) on one side and receptacles (20,21) that will engage with the projections (18,19) on another strip. The taught projections (18,19) have been read on the claimed "first engagement piece". The taught receptacles (20,21) have been read on the claimed "slot".

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1,3-10 and 27 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The cited prior art fails to teach or anticipated the first and second engagement pieces on the same wall. Astle is deemed to be the closest prior art and teaches the engagement pieces on opposite walls.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 12/29/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' remarks were convincing pertaining to all of the references except for Astle.

Art Unit: 1743

Applicants' the instant claims define over Astle per the 12/15/04 Interview Summary. However, upon reconsideration, the Office maintains Astle as the only grounds of rejection as detailed above.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
